The Pasadena Ronald McDonald House recently held a Red Shoe Society of Pasadena Oktoberfest Celebration at the home of board members Megan and Rick Foker. The Red Shoe Society's mission is to engage, empower and inspire young professionals to build awareness and support for the Pasadena Ronald McDonald House.

"The Pasadena Ronald McDonald House is thrilled to add the Red Shoe Society of Pasadena as new supporters to the House. These young professionals are energetic, like to have fun and are passionate about helping children in need. We are thrilled that their numbers are growing — we have more than 30 now after only two celebrations, and we hope to double that number next year," said Elizabeth Dever, director, Pasadena Ronald McDonald House.
